Tern Named Community Partner of the Year by San Diego County Bike Coalition

Los Angeles - January 6, 2015 - Each year, the San Diego County Bike Coalition presents their annual Golden Gear Awards to individuals and organizations who go above and beyond to make San Diego a more friendly place for cyclists.

For 2014, Tern has been recognized with the “Community Partner of the Year” award for ongoing support of activities such as CicloSDias, San Diego’s semi-annual open streets, car-free community event.

“Tern has really demonstrated support to the Bike Coalition and the bike community,” said Andy Hanshaw, Executive Director of SDCBC. “We are proud to be able to recognize Tern’s commitment and support.”

“Opening neighborhoods to car-free walking and cycling is very important to us,” said Steve Boyd, GM of Tern in North America. “Events like CicloSDias connect communities and help build positive social and commercial interactions. We are happy to partner with the San Diego County Bike Coalition to encourage more sustainable lifestyles.”
